SOUTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA TRANSPORTATION AUTHORITY FISCAL YEAR 2023 CAPITAL BUDGET

Pursuant to Pennsylvania Title 74 Pa. C.S.A. Transportation Section 1751 - Fiscal Provisions, the Southeastern Pennsylvania Transportation Authority ("SEPTA") is required to adopt a capital budget prior to the beginning of the ensuing fiscal year, which begins July 1st.

Members of the general public may attend the Capital Budget Hearings remotely and are encouraged to do so. As the coronavirus outbreak and national emergency continues to change the Capital Budget Hearing is subject to modification, including the possibility of SEPTA allowing limited public in-person participation in the hearing as permitted under official public health advisories and guidelines.

The schedule of Capital Budget Public Hearings is as follows:

May 23, 2022 – 10:00 am & 4:00 pm

SEPTA will be using WebEx to conduct these hearings. Further information on how individuals can register to attend via WebEx will be posted on the Authority's website: www.septa.org.

If limited public in-person participation is permitted, the location and instructions on how to register for in-person participation shall be posted on the Authority's website (www.septa.org) by April 22, 2022.

At this hearing, SEPTA will present the proposed Fiscal Year 2023 Capital Budget and the Fiscal Years 2023-2034 Capital Program. Each session of the hearing will begin with a pre-recorded segment that will include the hearing examiner's opening remarks, a reading of SEPTA's official testimony by a representative of the Authority and the playing of a corresponding Power Point Presentation. This recording will be posted for viewing on SEPTA's website at www.septa.org/notice beginning on or about May 16, 2022. After the pre-recorded segment, the hearings will be opened for public comment. SEPTA representatives will be available at each hearing to listen to public comments and public testimony. A sign language interpreter will be used during the public hearings.

Public Participation Opportunities:

On or about April 22, 2022, members of the public may access the proposed Fiscal Year 2023 Capital Budget and Fiscal Years 2023-2034 Capital Program at SEPTA's website: <https://planning.septa.org/reports/>.
