Independence Blue Cross Sponsoring Free Post-Game Rides From NRG Station

PHILADELPHIA (December 19, 2019) – Thanks to a collaboration with Independence Blue Cross, SEPTA will offer sports fans free rides home from NRG Station on the Broad Street Line after the Eagles game against the Dallas Cowboys on Sunday, December 22. The Broad Street Line serves Lincoln Financial Field and other venues at the Sports and Entertainment Complex in South Philadelphia.

Free rides from NRG Station will begin at 5:30 p.m. and end at 10:30 p.m. The free-ride-home program is aimed at offering a safe and convenient post-game travel option for fans. Kickoff at the Linc is 4:25 p.m. Please note: Regular fares will apply for all Broad Street Line travel to the game.

SEPTA will add service for the game. A total of 10 Sports Express trains will be added on the Broad Street Line to supplement regularly scheduled service. Sports Express service will run every 10 minutes from Fern Rock Station starting at 1:25 p.m. until 3:35 p.m.

"Independence Blue Cross knows how passionate Philadelphians are about their Eagles, and we share that excitement for our home team," said Daniel J. Hilferty, Independence Blue Cross CEO. The Broad Street Line also connects to bus routes that provide service throughout the city and region, and it is easily accessible from the PATCO High Speed Line for riders from South Jersey.
