From NRG Station 3-7 p.m.; SEPTA Adding Pre-Game Sports Express Service

PHILADELPHIA (November 18, 2021) – Fans traveling from NRG Station after the Eagles-Saints game on Sunday, Nov. 21 can ride home for free on the Broad Street Line thanks to Gopuff. The SEPTA Free Rides program is aimed at offering a safe and convenient post-game travel option for fans.

Free rides from NRG Station will begin at 3 p.m. and end at 7 p.m. Kickoff at the Linc is 1 p.m. Please note: Regular fares will apply for all Broad Street Line travel to the game.

SEPTA will add service for the game. A total of 10 Sports Express trains will be added on the Broad Street Line to supplement regularly scheduled service. Sports Express service will run every 10 minutes from Fern Rock Station starting at 10:10 a.m. until 12:20 p.m.

The Broad Street Line provides convenient service to Eagles games and other big events for riders throughout the region. There is a free transfer to the Broad Street Line from the Market-Frankford Line and City Trolley routes at 15th Street/City Hall, and it is just a short walk from Regional Rail stations in Center City. It also connects to bus routes that provide service throughout the city and region, and it's easily accessible from the PATCO High Speed Line for riders from South Jersey.

"As a business that's focused on customers' evolving needs and helping to make their daily lives easier, we're proud to provide safe, free and convenient SEPTA rides home from the Eagles game in our home town this weekend," said a Gopuff spokesperson.

To speed their trips to the game, SEPTA riders are encouraged to load funds on a SEPTA Key card before their travel or purchase a one-way Quick Trip ticket for travel to NRG Station. For more information about the SEPTA Key, visit www.septa.org/key.
